Case No. F.A. - 119/2003

Appellant: Dr. Mohanlal Sahare

Vs.

Respondent: Smt. Nutan Sahare

Appellant with Shri M.L. Pastore, Advocate.

Respondent with Shri Somnath Verma, Advocate.

AWARD

(Passed on 07.10.2006)

In a First Appeal, filed under Section 28 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, both the parties filed an application for listing the case before the Lok Adalat, making a prayer therein that during the pendency of the appeal, they have amicably settled the matter and divorce should be granted to them by mutual consent. This application has been marked as I.A.No. 3268/2006.

Today, the appellant namely- Dr. Mohan Lal Sahare and the respondent namely- Smt. Nutan Sahare, both are present in person alongwith their counsel namely- Shri M.L.Pastore and Somnath Verma. They are duly identified by their respective counsel.

The contents of the application vide para 5 shows that the parties have entered into compromise and they have amicably settled that divorce should be granted to them and their marriage-tie should be dissolved.

The brief facts are that the husband filed a petition for divorce before the Court at Janjgir, which was dismissed. Against which, this First Appeal has been filed and during the pendency of this First Appeal, the parties have entered into compromise as above.

We also personally enquired from the parties about their compromise, to which they agree. We also tried for reconciliation, but the parties are not agreeable to it.

In the facts and circumstances of the case, we deem it proper to dispose of this matter on mutual compromise and to grant divorce to the parties on their mutual consent. The divorce prayed for, is granted on the mutual agreement/consent of the parties. The marriage solemnized between the parties stand dissolved by this award.

The matter stands finally disposed of.
